The Be Proud Program

The Be Proud Program is sponsored by the Wayne Board of Education to offer high school students and athletes, an opportunity to join a voluntary, random drug and alcohol abuse testing program.

For thousands of students in New Jersey high schools, similar programs offer an opportunity to take a collective stand against substance abuse. Since the program continues to gain validation each year, members have strong peer support in their decision to select a healthy, drug-free lifestyle.

During their high school years, Be Proud members pledge to submit to random voluntary screening. While participation in the program is kept confidential, students may elect to indicate their participation on college applications.

Random testing, using a lottery system takes place throughout the school year. Identification numbers for all members are placed into the lottery pool. Students are selected for testing at random using a computer generated algorithm. A positive test results in activation of the Wayne Board of Education's Voluntary Random Drug Testing Policy. Parents and students are notified of any tests and their results. Program participants and test results are kept strictly confidential.
