Superintendent– Mark Toback

Referring to the pandemic- we are in good shape in the schools. No restrictions on events at this time.

Asked how kids are doing from the pandemic?

Goals for next year: revamping college admissions program. Will bring in college counselors next year to talk to students.

New academic academies at the High Schools- culinary, IT, teacher academy, business and finance, and marketing are a few academies being discussed.

BOE is in process of installing new security cameras.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

WEA – Keriann Palmieri is collecting for scholarship night. One graduate from each high school will receive a $1k scholarship.

FOOD BANK – Katherine Hughes is saying thank you for donations from: WEA for GCs, Wayne Valley Project Grad 2021, Fallon, and Spanish Honors Society.

BROWSE AND SHOP – Report by Amy Gharibian. They are having another sale in April and will be open during Spring Break. The store is making a lot of money and doing well. Clothing is biggest seller and they need more.

PROJECT GRADUATION:

WHHS – 2025 – Jen Crawford: having a meeting with their board and will begin to plan a fundraiser.

WVHS – 2024 – no one in attendance.

WHHS – 2023 – no one in attendance.

WHHS – 2022 – no one in attendance.

Project graduation tricky trays were successful at both high schools.

NEW BUSINESS

Nominating Committee needs to be chosen at each school. This committee is private and confidential. Committee consists of 5 people (3 committee members and 2 non-members).

Determine who on the board is staying and leaving. Need a President, Treasurer, and a Secretary to have a board. If you want a third term there needs to be a vote. Can be elected only if no new person is interested.

Field Day- class parents can help. Food is allowed at all events.

Pol Day can only have up to 20 volunteers.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Jen Crawford at 8:46 pm. Michelle Elia did the first motion and Jessica Kronke seconded the motion to end the meeting.

Thank you all for coming.
